CONTENT OF DISCUSSION

I. Liquor License Annual Renewals

In response to Chair Glassmire's inquiry, Mr. Krieg said that six or seven years ago, a few local establishments were experiencing problems and the Police Department anticipated recommending non-renewal of their liquor licenses. To prevent the potential closure of those businesses, the Police Department worked with them to resolve the issues. The policy was amended to prevent last-minute non-renewal recommendations, and the Police Department automatically works with establishments to resolve any issues prior to consideration of renewals. Since the policy change, no renewal issues have surfaced. The businesses and the Police Department recognize the value of working together.

Mr. Krieg explained that the Oregon Liquor Control Commission (OLCC) provides an annual renewal list and the City has 60 days to process and provide recommendations to OLCC. The renewal applications are reviewed by four City Departments: Police, Fire, Community Development, and Finance. All four Departments recommended renewal. If Council agrees, staff will send a letter to OLCC recommending renewal of all applications.

Mr. Krieg added that Council can recommend denial or approval with restrictions. Council's recommendation will be considered by OLCC; however, they may make a different decision. OLCC has assured the City that Council's recommendations are thoroughly considered during the renewal process.

In response to Chair Glassmire's inquiry, Mr. Krieg said a constituent who has a concern about a specific establishment can contact the Finance office and/or OLCC. There is a local OLCC agent and OLCC wants to know about any concerns in the community.

Councilor Beilstein noted that the City charges $35 for each renewal application. This amount is set by the State. The revenue does not cover the cost for four departments to review the applications and make recommendations. He added that the Tavern Owners Association is very responsive to public and police concerns. He is not sure if all of the taverns are active, but the association helps maintain a level of safety for the community.

Chair Glassmire agreed that the cooperation between the Police Department and tavern owners is good.

Mr. Krieg said there are more than 140 applications on the renewal list.

The Committee members present recommended Council approve all liquor license annual renewal applications and submit a favorable recommendation to the Oregon Liquor Control Commission.

II. Other Business

Pending Agenda Items

Councilor Beilstein reviewed the June 2 topics:

- Social Service Allocations – HSC will consider the United Way recommended allocations for Fiscal Year 15-16 and make a recommendation to Council.
- Community Police Review Advisory Board Annual Report/Sunset Review – This will provide a good conversation with Board representatives about accomplishments and future plans. The Board is required to meet quarterly regardless of whether issues are brought forward. Per Council adoption last fall, Advisory Boards are required to submit an annual report (with the newly adopted format). The Municipal Code requires a sunset review approximately every four years.
- Parks, Natural Areas, and Recreation Advisory Board Annual Report/Sunset Review – This discussion may be lengthy due to the Board's concern about the budget.
- Municipal Code Review: Chapter 5.01, "City Park Regulations" (Alcoholic Beverages in Parks) – no information available at this time. [Following the meeting, staff learned that this item will be postponed until August 4.]

Absences

Councilor Beilstein announced that he will be absent during the month of July and he requested the Corvallis Farmers' Market Annual Report be moved to June 16. Mr. Shepard noted that he will also be absent during both HSC meetings in July. [Following the meeting, Parks staff requested the Farmers' Market report be moved to June 16.]

Agenda Creation

Councilor Beilstein said during the last Council term, Councilors York and Sorte served with him on HSC. Councilors York and Sorte preferred to have more input on HSC agenda items. Two items they initiated included homelessness issues and cooperation between the arts community organizations. In the past, staff set the Standing Committee agendas or items were referred by Council. Councilor Beilstein opined that the new process may result in more work for the Standing Committee and staff, and he is not sure HSC is the best venue for some of the discussions. However, there is the possibility that HSC could identify discussion topics, especially if members do not believe Council or staff is putting enough emphasis on a specific topic.

In response to Chair Glassmire's inquiry, Councilor Beilstein confirmed that HSC did not seek Council approval to add the agenda items. If all three members agreed to add the item, staff complied. HSC never expected staff to provide any preparation for the added agenda items. For example, when the arts organizations discussion occurred, Councilors York and Sorte invited the arts community without involving staff.

Mr. Shepard added that a challenge can arise when Council sets policy direction and a subcommittee involves resources to do other things. This can cause a loss of focus on the direction set by Council.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Human Services Committee

FROM: Nancy Brewer, Finance Director NB

DATE: May 1, 2015

SUBJECT: Annual Liquor License Renewals

I. ISSUE

Annual review and approval of local establishment's liquor license renewal applications with the Oregon Liquor Control Commission (OLCC).

II. BACKGROUND

The OLCC conducts an annual renewal process for all liquor licenses issued in the state. OLCC sends a list of licensees that are eligible for renewal to the City in April. Upon receipt, the City has sixty days to make a recommendation to the OLCC concerning renewal of the licenses. At the end of sixty day period, if there is not a recommendation for a license, the OLCC processes the renewal as if it received a favorable recommendation.

OLCC mails license renewal applications to licensees approximately two months before the license expires on June 30th. The license applicant must return the completed application to the OLCC at least twenty days before the license expires. As part of the City renewal process, approved licensees must provide a copy of their completed OLCC application, a completed City renewal application and pay a $35 renewal fee to the City. Applicants cannot legally sell or serve alcohol after the license expires.

The City conducts an investigation on all renewal applications which includes review by the Fire Department (CFD) for compliance with fire code and by Community Development (CD) for compliance with building and sign codes. The Corvallis Police Department (CPD) investigates each applicant for any criminal activity or alcohol related problems associated with the business during the prior year. CPD submits an internal report to Finance addressing any outstanding issues and makes their recommendation going forward. Finance staff compile the recommendations and report to the Human Services Committee (HSC).

Even though Council is requested to review license applications, Council has limited authority in the actions it can take. Actions available to Council and responses available to the OLCC are detailed in the table below. The OLCC is not required to abide by Council's recommendations, but the OLCC does carefully consider Council's recommendations.

Actions available to the City Council	Responses available to the OLCC
No recommendation on licenses	Process as a favorable recommendation
Favorable recommendation	Accept recommendation
Recommend granting licenses with restrictions	Accept recommendation; renew without restrictions; deny
Recommend licenses not be granted unless applicant demonstrates commitment to overcome concerns	Accept recommendation; renew without restrictions; renew with restrictions; deny
Recommend denial of the licenses	Accept recommendation; renew without restrictions; renew with restrictions.

III. DISCUSSION

Upon review and investigation of the applicants, CPD, CFD and CD reported no ongoing problems. All applicants (list attached) are approved for liquor license renewal.

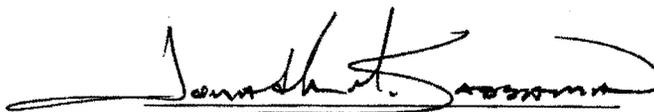

IV. REQUESTED ACTION

Staff requests HSC recommend City Council approve all applicants for the annual liquor license renewal and submit a favorable approval recommendation to the OLCC.
